

STRENGTHENING HOSPITAL RESPONSES TO FAMILY VIOLENCE

Presenter:

Sally Russell – SHRFV project co-ordinator

STRENGTHENING HOSPITAL RESPONSES TO FAMILY VIOLENCE

Home > Departments > Family Violence

Family Violence

Note for staff - the information on the following webpages relates specifically to family violence and sexual assault and may have an impact on the reader. Please seek support if you are directly affected by these issues or notice that you are impacted by reading this material.

 What is Family Violence	 Pathways to Safety	 Keeping Kids Safe
 Accessing Clinical Support	 Accessing Workplace Support	 What's Happening Around Austin

Family Violence

- What is Family Violence?
- Pathways to Safety
- Keeping Kids Safe
- Accessing Clinical Support
- Accessing Workplace Support
- What is happening around Austin?

With one in three women in Australia experiencing violence since the age of 15, we know that family violence is an issue that affects many of our staff and community. While anyone, male or female, can be a victim of violence, the evidence demonstrates that overwhelmingly the majority of people that experience violence in the home are women and children.

TRAINING

Module 1: A Shared Understanding

- Definition
- Statistics
- Drivers
- Barriers
- Resources

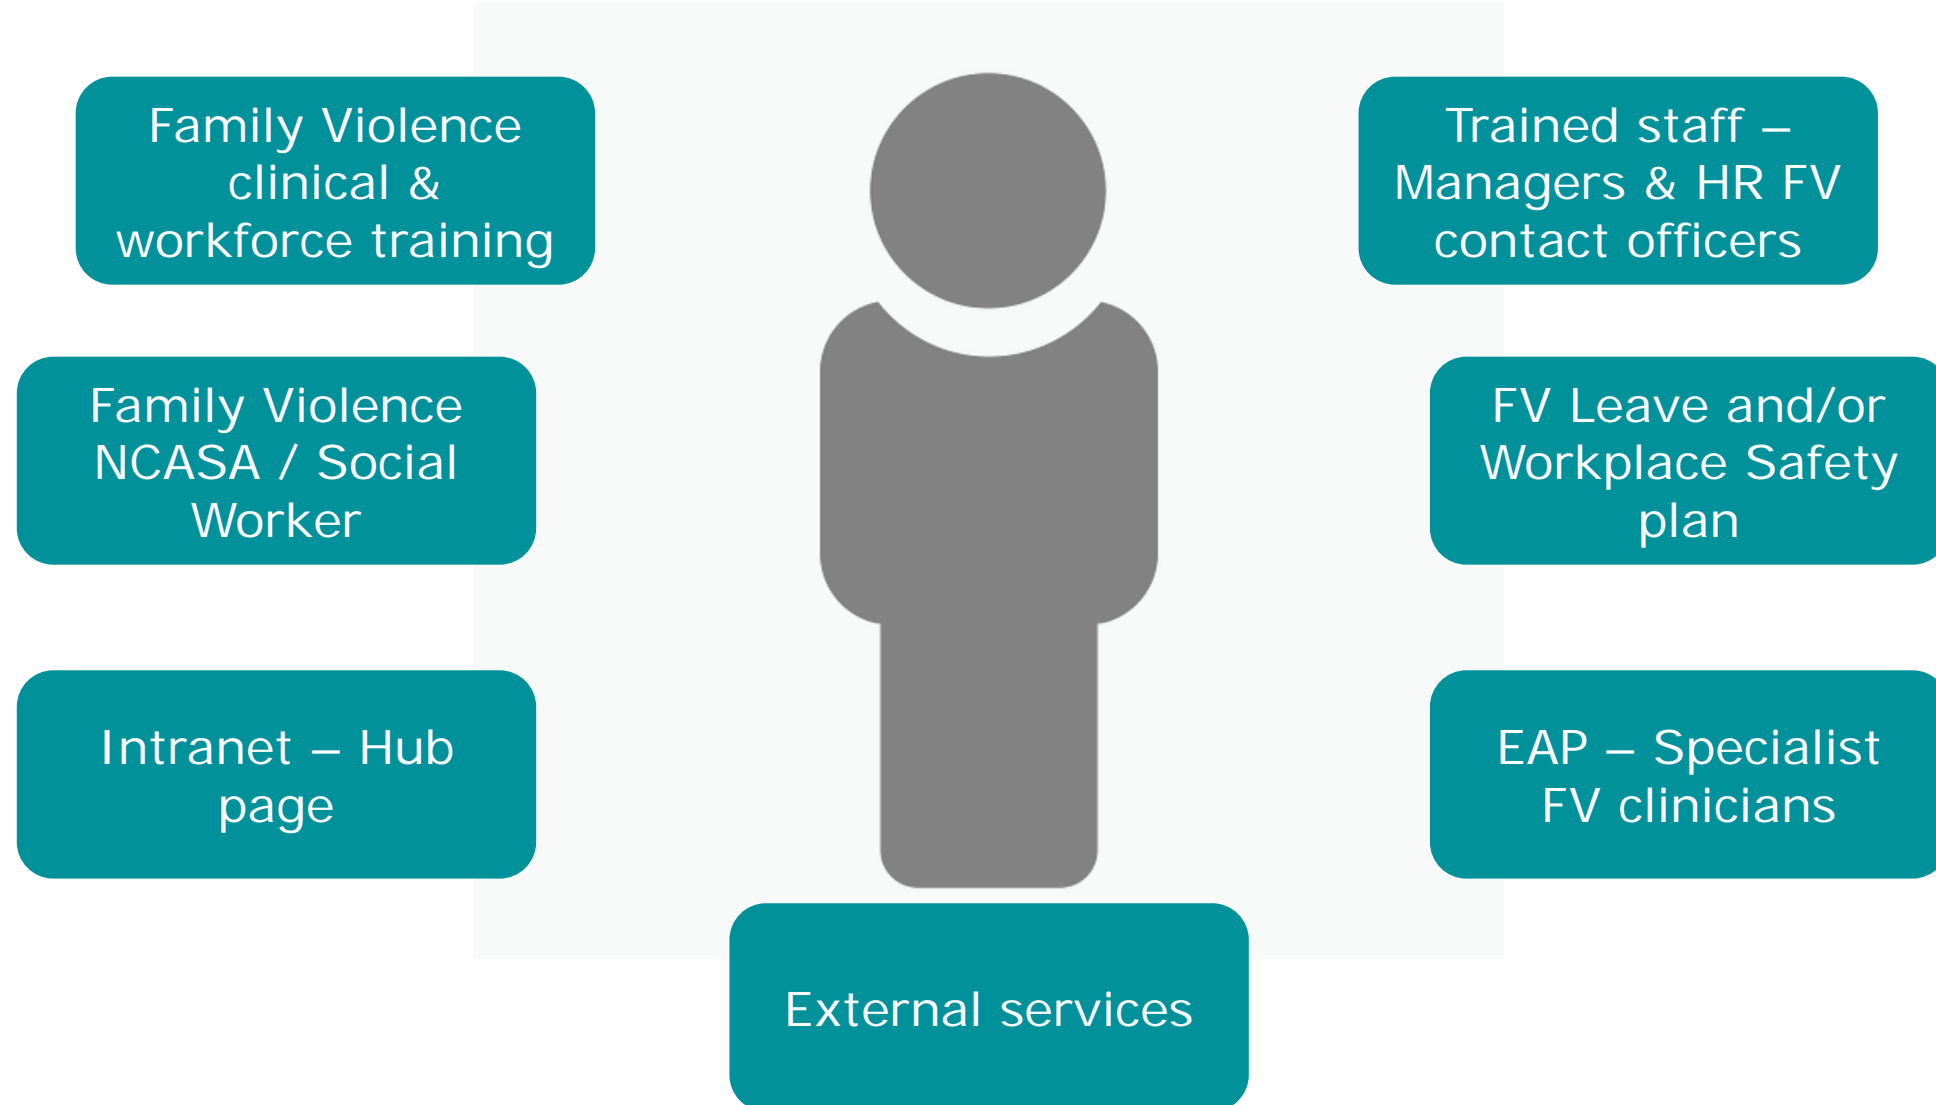

Module 2: Clinician – Recognise, Respond & Refer

- Risks indicators
- Basic safety planning
- Sensitive practice
- Resources
- Pathways

Manager training

- Accessing FV leave
- Workplace safety planning
- Sensitive practice
- Resources

CLINICAL & WORKFORCE SUPPORTS

CAPACITY BUILDING

Addressing skills and competencies of staff responding to family violence, including a focus on consultation and capacity building.

Current: Senior Family Violence Social Worker

New (additional):

- NCASA Family Violence Specialist
- Mental Health Specialist FV Advisor